BORED ! "

In the heart of Montmartre, Espace Dalí presents the only permanent exhibition in France entirely devoted to the Master of surrealism, and more particularly to his sculptures and engravings. You will travel into a fantasy world and discover over 300 artworks that made Salvador Dalí one of the major artists of the twentieth century.

1 A diverse offer of tours adapted for all ages

SELF-GUIDED TOUR "JOURNEY TO THE HEART OF SURREALISM" - All levels

Equipped with an educational booklet, children are guided through the Dalinian universe. From September 11, 2015 to January 3, 2016, includes the visit of the exhibition, Daum Variations d'Artistes. To prepare for the visit, teachers may download the educational file for free from the Espace Dalí website and give each student an educational worksheet for a fun and intelligent way to visit Espace Dalí.

2 Guided and animated tours

SINGING AND MIMING TOUR Children from 3 to 7

Using a variety of instruments, children create rhythms and movements to give life to Salvador Dalí's surrealist sculptures. This harmonious course combines aesthetic and auditory initiation through a poetic encounter with the artist's world. Let's dance, sing and mime with Salvador Dalí!

• Length: 1:30 / Rate: 225 euros***

STORY-TELLING AND DRAWING TOUR Children from 3 to 10

A guide tells exciting and strange stories about Dalí's sculptures. Each child has a booklet in which to illustrate the stories.

• Length: 1:30 / Rate: 225 euros***

DALÍ : THE REBEL PUPIL Children from 11 to 18

The tour takes inspiration from the program for art history in middle school and high school, creating ties between various artistic disciplines using the diverse, varied works by Dalí. Students may also take part in a typically surrealist activity: the exquisite cadaver. The tour includes the Daum Variations d'Artistes exhibition, from September 11, 2015 to January 3, 2016.

3 Original, one-of-a-kind creative workshops

These smart workshops draw on learning acquired during the tour. Each workshop begins with a 45-minute guided tour and is extended by 45-minutes of artistic creation based on one of the following themes:

FUNNY DALÍMALS Children from 3 to 10

The Space Elephant, The Snail and the Angel... are sculptures designed as an assembly of different animal parts. At the workshop, each child invents an animal inspired by the tour and recreates an environment in order to give life to this new creature!

• Length: 1:30 / Rate: 245 euros***

WE ARE SURREALISM! Children from 8 to 18

While following in Dalí's footsteps, students learn how the artist obtained dreamlike representations by combining unlikely elements. Then using their own photo and an exquisite cadaver, they make a collage of a work from a Dalinian dream.

• Length: 1:30 / Rate: 245 euros***

THE TALKING STAIN Children from 8 to 18

During the tour, children observe the works featuring spots that are transformed by the artist's creative genius for characters, animals... At the workshop, they create their spots using different materials and give life to some surprising drawings!

• Length: 1:30 / Rate: 245 euros***

SCULPT, YOU WILL BE UNIQUE Children from 8 to 18

That's what Gala used to say to Salvador Dalí. After discovering the artist's sculptures such as the Soft Watches or the surrealist piano, students go to the workshop to experiment with the modeling technique to make a self-portrait.

NEW: WORKSHOP "COLOR SHATTERS" FROM SEPT, 11TH 2015 TO JANUARY, 3RD 2016 2 levels : Children from 3 - 8 or 9 - 18

Dalí used to say :
"Glass paste is truly a dalinian material. Hence I have used it to create masterpieces; I am delighted with this new material, which has both the molecular elasticity of a snail, and the consistency of the Perpignan train station"

Children first follow a 45-min guided tour and discover the techniques used for the pâte de cristal sculptures, the collection invented by Dalí for Daum and the creations of some more contemporary artistes such as Arman, Ben, César, Mesnager... Back at the workshop, they build their own 3 dimensional sculpture, playing with colors and shapes, inspired by the visit of the exhibition.
